To Whom It May Concern:

My name is Andrew J. O'Connell. I am a former Special Agent with the United States Secret Service, a former Assistant United States Attorney in Criminal Prosecution, a former attorney at Skadden Arps, and have also served as CEO / Director of two leading international investigations and security services firms. With more than 15 years experience conducting investigations and coordinating national security operations, I have extensive contacts with most of the major Federal and State law enforcement agencies, and am very familiar with their business needs and procedures.

I spoke with Michael Hirsch several times about his company and reviewed the unique assessment tools that he has developed; in fact, I even went through the assessment battery myself. I was extremely impressed. It is truly a revolutionary product in the field of Assessment, and has particular relevance to the recruitment, assessment, and selection of Law Enforcement personnel in particular. I strongly recommend his product to anyone working in any branch of the U.S. military or in Federal / State Law Enforcement.

Feel free to contact me if I can be of any further assistance.

Sincerely,

Andrew J. O'Connell
CEO
